A message to all our customers

I am afraid that last session (2023-24) saw the final production of yearly prelim papers from Pegasys Educational Publishing. For us here at Pegasys it is undoubtedly the end of an era as we have been producing unique assessment materials for Scottish schools/colleges for more than 28 years.

We would therefore like to take this opportunity to thank all of our many customers for their custom and their support of our prelims over these many years.

L. Wright (Proprietor – Pegasys Educational Publishing)

Although we have stopped production of our yearly assessment materials you may be interested in our new sets of practice papers. Please see the previous page for details.
